Free SPCO Concert Library Now Available on Roku

SAINT PAUL, MN, MARCH 11, 2025 — The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra (SPCO) announces today that all the on-demand content in its online Concert Library is now available to stream on Roku. First launched in 2017, the SPCO's free, online Concert Library offers video and audio concert recordings — both live and on-demand — that can be accessed anytime, completely free of charge thanks to the generous support of donors.

Now, users can stream breathtaking, high-definition performances from one of the world's premier chamber orchestras directly to their own TVs. Simply access the Concert Library from any Roku device. Roku devices are available starting at $18 from numerous retailers and online sources.

"We've often heard from people looking for an even more convenient way to watch SPCO video concerts on their TV or home theater," said SPCO Executive Producer of Digital Media Matt Thueson. "We're excited to make our music even more accessible to the community through this free Roku channel."

About The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra

Founded in 1959, the Grammy Award-winning Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra (SPCO) is renowned for its artistic excellence, remarkable versatility of musical styles and adventurous programming. SPCO concerts are primarily musician-led and include a broad range of repertoire, from Baroque works to new music, in close collaboration with a dynamic roster of internationally acclaimed Artistic Partners. Through a distinctive musician-led artistic model, SPCO musicians lead and develop the orchestra's programming, determine members and choose artistic collaborators.

In its commitment to making music accessible to everyone, the SPCO presents concerts in a variety of venues across the Twin Cities each year while offering the most affordable ticket prices of any professional orchestra in the United States. The orchestra also offers an innovative ticket membership model in which members pay a monthly fee to attend unlimited concerts, starting at $5 per month.

Mission of The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra

Our mission is to sustain a world-class chamber orchestra at the highest standards of artistic excellence that enriches the Twin Cities community by sharing dynamic, distinctive and engaging performances. We are actively committed to accessibility and intentional inclusivity in all aspects of our work and continually strive to provide all people in our community with opportunities to connect with the music we perform.
